Local sandwich shop robbed at knifepoint
Help identifying suspect requested from the public

Salem, Ore. — On March 31, 2022, at approximately 9:45 p.m., patrol officers responded to the Subway located in the 2800 block of Lancaster Drive NE after the report of an armed robbery.

The suspect used a knife to demand money from the employee at the counter. The employee stepped away from the till and yelled for help. The suspect then fled the store on foot.

Employees described the man as a white, male adult wearing a gray and black baseball cap. He was dressed in a dark blue jacket, dark-red gloves, blue jeans, dark shoes, and carried a black backpack. He also wore a dark neck gaiter pulled up to his nose.

Anyone knowing the identity of the suspect, or with information about the case, is asked to call the Salem Police Tips Line at 503-588-8477.
