Teen Services Librarian, Sonja Somerville, and Teen Advisory Board (TAB) Members, Riley Hurt and Lauren Huber provided an update on recent TAB activities. The teen scene was busy during spring break. The Take What You Need Project is running low on supplies specifically lip balm. TAB is thankful for all the community donations that have been sent. TAB is also exploring the option of expanding the program to the West Salem Library. On April 28th a CPR class will be available for any teen that would like to attend at the Main Library.

Francine submitted a written chair's report to the agenda packet for the current meeting and answered questions from the group.

Kim answered questions from the group regarding the April City Librarian's Report.

No Friend's report was shared at the current meeting.

No Foundation report was shared at the current meeting.

Francine shared some Lab members are approaching the end of their term on the board. She encouraged those LAB members to renew their term.
