

SUMMER EVENTS FOR ADULTS

JUNE

Craft: Trending Welcome Mats

1-3 p.m. - Saturday, June 8 - Anderson Rooms

Adults are invited to make their own welcome mat. This event mixes painting with socializing. All materials provided and free to the public. Seating is limited. Registration required on the library website.

TAG! Queer Cinema in Short Form

3-5 p.m. - Saturday, June 15 -
Loucks Auditorium

Join us for a free viewing of 9 custom-curated short films celebrating queer cinema. We are partnering with TAG! to provide a physical space where Queer and Trans filmmakers can exhibit their art. Everyone has a role to play in helping bring visibility, reach new audiences, and support LGBTQIA+ creators.

All adults welcome!

Make Music Day Salem

12-4 p.m. - Friday, June 21 - Peace Plaza

An afternoon of free music to enjoy.

12-1 p.m.—My Mother's Daughter (ukulele duo)

1-2 p.m.—ericprincessdragon (indie-folk)

2-3 p.m.—String Theory (cello duo)

3-4 p.m.—Tim Avilla (jazz and blues)

JULY

Melao de Cuba Salsa Music Performance

2-3 p.m. - Saturday, July 13 -

Loucks Auditorium

Enjoy the foot-tapping beat of this exciting salsa performance mixing the sounds of traditional and modern Cuban music.

Puzzle & Board Game Swap

1-3 p.m. - Saturday, July 27 - Anderson Rooms

Drop off your new or gently used puzzles and board games (no missing pieces!) ahead of time at the Main Library between Tuesday, July 23 and Friday, July 27 or bring them to the swap on Saturday.

August

Home Canning How-To

1-2:30 - Saturday, August 3 - Anderson Rooms

Ready to get preserving but unsure about the details? An expert from the Marion County Extension Service will guide us through the process of preserving the season's bounty. This is a free event, with seating available on a first-come, first seated basis.
